THANK YOU

Just to thank the Bible Group and also the congregation for attending Michael's funeral. Also for all the beautiful cards and donations for Queenscourt Hospice. Mass will be offered for you all. Thank you. Ann Dance

I want to sincerely thank all of you who gave me support during the visitation last weekend. I don't find visitations easy so I really appreciate any support. Thanks especially to all who supported me by responding to the Bishop's request to meet parishioners on Sunday afternoon. Although few in number, you showed off the parish in a very good light. Special thanks to the ladies who did the catering in such a wonderful and cheerful way. You certainly did us proud. Someone asked me if I passed!!!! Well one of his last questions was would I retire at 75 or would I be staying on so I felt that was a good sign. Don't ask me what my answer was.

FAIRTRADE STALL,

The Parish Fairtrade stall is now back in the Chapel and will be opened after weekend masses. Why not take a peep at all the goodies on sale. By purchasing a bar of chocolate, packet of cookies, jar of coffee, box of tea bags and choosing to buy Fairtrade products, you are helping to make a difference to the lives of the people who grow the things we love. We can do this by changing the way trade works through better prices, decent working conditions and a fair deal for farmers and workers in developing countries. Please support your Parish Fairtrade stall and help to make a difference.

LITTLE CHAPEL

The Little Chapel is fully operational at last. From Monday it will be open for private prayer each day where the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed. Access to the chapel is by fob which costs £5. If you would like a fob please have a word with Dave.

DAY FOR LIFE

There will be a second collection after all Masses next weekend to support the Bishops' Day for Life.

NOVENA

It was just great to have the novena again after Mass last Wednesday. What a beautiful prayer it is. After over twelve months I'd almost forgotten.

CELEBRATION

The work on the church is nearing completion. When it is finished I think that there should be a celebration. Any ideas as to how we could celebrate such a wonderful occasion?
